

ROBIN DECLERCQ

ARTWORKS
2019/2020

ROBIN DECLERCQ est un jeune artiste-peintre né en 1991 à Paris. Sensibilisé depuis le plus jeune âge au dessin, à l'architecture et au design par des parents architectes d'intérieur, il prend rapidement conscience de sa fibre artistique.

Il ne s'imagine pourtant pas artiste et commence d'abord par entreprendre. Il se lance dans la communication visuelle, le graphisme au sens large et travaille durant plusieurs années bridé par les cahiers des charges de ses clients. Désireux de s'exprimer différemment et sans limites, Robin va se remettre en question et de cette ancienne contrainte professionnelle va naître son besoin de liberté d'expression, de liberté artistique.

Lors de nombreux voyages dans diverses métropoles, de New York à Shanghai, en passant par Sydney ou encore Budapest, Robin s'imprègne de chaque culture, et y puise naturellement ce qui l'inspire. C'est finalement en 2014 qu'il opère un virage radical.

Autodidacte, créatif et perpétuel curieux, il engage un travail expérimental sur une série de portraits contemporains grands formats en noir et blanc, contrastés par des touches de couleurs vives. Son travail se porte sur un choix de sujets sensuels, intenses et puissants, dont l'influence du streetart, de la mode et de la musique se dégage de façon distincte. Sur ses toiles, les oppositions sont omniprésentes, et sur le fond comme sur la forme le contraste est roi. Il ne se limite aucunement par ses outils et ne s'en impose aucun. C'est donc en jonglant constamment entre l'acrylique, l'huile ou encore le digital qu'il affirme son style brut et franc, et sa recherche continue de la matière, des couleurs et des visages.

Aujourd'hui, Robin Declercq vend à l'international et poursuit avec passion sa création d'oeuvres puissantes et immersives.

Robin Declercq is a young artist born in 1991, in Paris. Made familiar from an early age to drawing, architecture and design thanks to parents who were interior designers, he quickly discovered his artistic side.

Not knowing what the future holds for him, he starts his own graphic design and visual communication business. After working for a few years, he notices the constraints put on his creativity, as a result of customers' briefs and over those years begins to feel his imagination is not being fully maximised. He finally questions his career, and his need for artistic freedom arises. Robin travels and lives in many different places in the world, like New York, Shanghai, Sydney, Budapest, immerses himself in each culture and naturally picks up what inspires him. Eventually, in 2014 he operates a major change.

Being self-taught, creative and perpetually curious, he begins experimental work on a series of large sized contemporary portraits, painted in black and white then contrasted by striking colors. His work is shaped by a variety of subjects, focusing mainly on sensual, intense and powerful looking models.

Street art, fashion, and musical influences distinctively emit from it. Opposites are resonant throughout his pieces of artworks, and on both form and content the contrast is key. His tools aren't exclusive and he doesn't restrict himself to a single medium. It's actually by juggling with acrylic, oil and digital that he affirms his raw and bold brush style and his research into texture, colors and portraiture.

Nowadays, Robin Declercq sells worldwide and continues with passion his creation of powerful and immersive pieces.
